

Pleasanton Senior Living History Program

You have a history and a story to tell! Just the fact that you've lived through many significant events in world history gives you an important legacy – one worth sharing with others.

Would you be willing to share your story with the local community in a casual setting like local grammar and high schools, museum, or senior center? This unique volunteer driven "Senior Living History Program" may allow you to be a great resource to the community! If you're interested in sharing your story, please complete the following information:

A volunteer coordinator will contact you soon about application. If you have any questions, please contact Roy Ficken at RFicken@cityofpleasantonca.gov or call the Senior Center at 931-5366. Please mail your application to:
